

I am an interpreter who needs to have frequent contacts with deaf individuals. Many are not good users of the relay service using tty's because their English is not good enough. ASL is their first and only adequate language. VRS is the only way I can communicate effectively with them. I implore you to fund VRS adequately with qualified interpreters until functional equivalency is met.